RICHMOND, VA., May 21.—Special.— Richmond went down another peg today and lost to the leaders by a score of three to two. A large crowd saw the blunders of the home team and the weather was ideal, and both clubs played in excellent form. Neither side scored until the fifth inning, when two men of each team got home. In the seventh another Norfolk player arrived, and afterward all was blank on both sides. The Richmonders squealed on Mitchell's umpiring, not, it must be owned, without apparent cause. The Game Given to Hampton.

HAMPTON, VA., May 21.—Special.— The baseball game between Hampton and Petersburg at River-View Park to-day broke up in a squabble at the beginning of the sixth inning. The umpire and the two clubs were arguing a close decision when Martin, of Hampton, started in from second for home. The catcher threw the ball to third, but it was caught by an outsider and thrown away. The umpire did not see this, and when Martin went home called him "safe." King Kelly refused to play, and the game went to Hampton 5 to 0. The score stood: Hampton, 6; Petersburg, 5. The game was a rowdy one from the beginning. Score:

MAY DROP A TEAM.

State Magnates Will Meet in Newport News To-Day.

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., May 21.—Special.— A meeting of the Virginia League magnates will be held at the Augusta Hotel, of this place, to-morrow afternoon, when the question of determining whether the Petersburg team, with another team, will be dropped from the baseball circuit, will be decided.

At the meeting in Richmond last week a committee, of which President Cummings was a member, was appointed to go to Petersburg for the purpose of interesting the people there into buying the franchise from Manager Foster. In case the report of the committee is adverse to the Petersburg team, another nine will be dropped, and an effort started to continue the League as a four-game circuit. Manager Ed. Aschenbach, of the Hampton nine, in speaking of the meeting to-morrow, gave it as his opinion that in case Petersburg would meet a like fate, and the League would continue with Hampton, Norfolk, Newport News, and Portsmouth as the opposing clubs.

PICKETT CAMP.

Interesting Meeting Held Last Night.
Invitation Accepted.

There was a meeting of Pickett Camp, C. V., last night. The Camp was called to order by Commander W. U. Bass, and prayer was offered by Chaplain P. P.
Winston.

A communication from Fredericksburg Camp was read and referred to the Reception Committee.

The communication from the Ladies' Hollywood Memorial Association inviting the Camp to attend divine services at the Seventh-Street Christian Church on the evening of the 27th, was read and accepted. The Camp will meet at the hall at 7:30 o'clock in uniform, in order to attend the services in a body.

The application of George C. Smith, of Company G, Twenty-fifth Battalion, was received.

The entertainment of the Grand Army of the Potomac was discussed, and the Camp was ordered to bear their portion of the expenses.

The Camp voted to get Miss McCurdy to make out the roll of the Camp for the Confederate Museum.

John Lamb visited the Camp and told of a very pathetic story of meeting one of his old comrades whom he had not seen since the surrender.

Comrade Lamb paid a very high tribute to Past Adjutant and Comrade, Captain Peter McCurdy.

The members voted to meet at the residence of Comrade C. T. Loehr, No. 310 East Leigh Street, and will march from there to the Hebrew Memorial service on May 23, at 6:30 o'clock P. M.

WORK OF THE AMBULANCE.

There were three accidents at the Locomotive Works yesterday. At 10:55 in the morning, A. W. Matthews, a white employee, had his right arm cut by a piece of steel.

At 12:40 o'clock, C. O. Brown had his left arm badly bruised by being caught in a planing machine, and at 12:50 o'clock a large bolt, after falling about 30 feet, struck the head of John Dunberger, making a severe wound.

Dr. Fisher, of the Ambulance, treated all three cases.

The following calls were answered on Sunday:

At 9 A. M. it was called to the First Police Station to attend James Gray, who had been badly cut by a horse falling upon him.

At 9:35 P. M. it responded to a call from No. 24 North Second Street, to attend William Cordin, who had been severely cut about the head by Morton Watson.

At 11 P. M. it was called to Foushee Street, to attend Mr. Clarence Woolridge, of Lunenburg county, who had fallen upon the street. He was taken to the almshouse, and found to be ill with typhoid fever.

cratic caucus at Baton Rouge this morning unanimously decided upon Senator lature is solidly Democratic.

BECKHAM WINS GOVERNORSHIP

"The writ of error is dismissed."
THREE DISSENTING OPINIONS.
A similar order was entered in the injunction case between the same parties.
There were three dissenting opinions.
Justice McKenna was the first of the dissenters to be heard. He stated that, while he concurred in the result, he was not prepared to say that a public office was not property.

Justice Brewer also based his dissent on the point of office as property. He also held the view that the United States courts were not without jurisdiction, but contended that the decision of the injunction case should be affirmed instead of dismissed on the writ of error. He says the prescribed procedure was followed in awarding the contestants the offices, and that he did not ignore the many allegations of wrong, such as that the selection of the committee was not by lot, but was a trick on the part of the Clerk of the Assembly.

Justice Brewer said no question could be raised in the courts as to the honesty or integrity of the members of the Legislature in the discharge of their duties; that lies between them and their constituents.
In conclusion, Justice Brewer agrees with the Court of Appeals of Kentucky that upon the award of the Assembly no other element can be entered than that which sustains it.

Justice Harlan rendered a dissenting opinion.
